Supreme Court's Ruling regarding Chakma Refugees

627. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Supreme Court gave a ruling recently that there should be no forcible eviction of Chakma refugees from Arunchal Pradesh;

(b) whether subsequently there were agitations in the State that the Chakmas should be repatriated; and

(c) if so, what is the reaction of Government to the above developments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SYED SIBTEY RAZI): (a) to (c) The Supreme Court, by its order dated 9.1.1996, has directed, interalia, that the life and personal liberty of each and every Chakma residing within the State shall be protected and that, except in accordance with law the Chakmas shall not be evicted from their homes. Certain groups in Arunachal Pradesh have expressed their resentment in this regard.

Earlier, on 29.12.1995, orders were issued constituting a High Level Group under the Chairmanship of the Union Home Minister to look into the backgroud of the issue of Chakmas and Hajongs in Arunachal Pradesh and identify the course of action to be adopted. The Group, in its meeting held on 5.1.1996, decided to set up an official level Sub-Committee to suggest the course of action which could be adopted expeditiously for a resolution of the problem. The Sub-Committee was also expected to visit Arunahcal Pradesh.

On a reference from the Government of Arunachal Pradesh, The State Government has been informed that the High Level Group and the Sub-Committee can continue to carry on their work but such work will have to be in aid of the directions given by the Supreme Court, and not in derogation thereof. As such, the State Government has been requested to indicate its convenience for continuing the work of the Sub-Committee, which includes a visit to the State.
